Scholastic Basketball Schedule for Today

HIGH SCHOOL LEAGUE GAMES. Central High vs. Southern High, at Southern High School, 10th and Walnut streets.

OTHER CONTESTS. Lansdowne High School vs. Meritt High School, at Meritt College, at Wilmington, Del.

Table with 2 columns: Team, P.C. (Points per Game). Rows include Central High, Southern High, West Philadelphia High, etc.

Coach Walter Keating of the Northeast High School basketball team, is just as confident as Coach Jimmy Usilton, of Central High, that his players will land the High School League basketball title.

Northeast has a good basketball team, and Keating is confident that his players will land the High School League basketball title.

Keating pointed out that Northeast had had luck in the early games of the season, but that his players were in great shape now and were winning their hard games.

HORRORS! EDDIE O'KEEFE AND TENDLER ALMOST COME TO BLOWS IN ROPED ARENA

"Dear Old Public" Is Once More Defeated in a Tri-Cornered Fight Battle Royal at the Olympia—Wind-up Silent Tribute to Peace and Henry Ford

BY ROBERT W. MAXWELL. They settled a long-standing grudge at the Olympia A. C. last night. It was a three-cornered affair, with two boxers and the Dear Old Public participating.

Mr. Eddie O'Keefe and Mr. Lew Tendler, residents of our city, devoted 15 minutes of their valuable time in an effort to settle the argument as to who is the bantamweight champion of Philadelphia.

It was a terrible argument, and they almost came to blows. At the end both claimants to the title were breathing heavily.

Mr. O'Keefe put up a miserable exhibition of boxing, and his performance was equaled by Mr. Tendler. For five and one-half rounds they did everything but slap each other on the wrist, while the Dear Old Public—600 strong—maintained a gloomy silence.

At the end of one round, who got the local bantamweight title. It was an unsatisfactory draw, and we suggest that the next argument be settled by matching pencils or playing a game of pinch.

The result will be more satisfactory and the contest more interesting.

A Great Success. As a "chaser" the windup was a huge success. The crowd began to leave in the second round and before the time-limiter mercifully put an end to the bloody struggle in the sixth only a few of the faithful remained.

Among those who were wedged in his Corniskey, Laminin and one or two others and couldn't depart until assistance arrived.

Before the fight—we insist on calling it a fight—it was reported that large wads of legal tender had been wasted on the result. It was impossible to interview any of the plunger last night, but it is safe to say that none suffered from heart failure during the contest.

The result never was in doubt and there was no chance for a knockout unless a policeman climbed through the ropes and used his stick.

Too bad we didn't think of this last night. Eddie did some excellent dancing in the first round and succeeded in evading Tendler's vicious left which might have annoyed him had it landed.

Swallowing a swart of shadow boxing with two in the cast, and the boys seemed to enjoy the exercise.

It seemed as if Tendler was afraid to lower his much-vaunted left hand to a level low enough to take a good punch at O'Keefe. Eddie, on the other hand, was unusually slow, both depended on his jab.

While O'Keefe used his southpaw, although Eddie worked a few drops of claret from his opponent's nose in the fifth frame, there was no real action until the final minute, when Tendler shook off his fear and began to punch with both hands at close quarters.

Lew's right cracked Eddie's lips, but there was no sore left to speak of.

As early as the second round the "ferocious fighting" of the title hunters so pleased some of the spectators that they donned their overcoats and started for the exits.

In the fifth round almost half of the fans downstairs stood up in a body and left the arena.

Mr. O'Keefe weighed in at 121 pounds, while Tendler was one pound less.

Results of Ring Bouts Last Night at a Glance

OLYMPIA—Eddie O'Keefe and Lew Tendler drew, Willie Jackson won from Eddie Miller, Barney Hahn defeated Willie Brown, Harry Smith knocked out Charlie Marshall in the fifth, Joe Tuber won the 10-round bout.

NEW YORK—Young Sandow drew with Alf Mansfield, Gus Lewis defeated Young Knickerbocker in the fourth, Kid Alberts outboxed Harry Britt.

NEW ORLEANS—Phil Virgels beat Gene Delmont in 15 rounds, Kid Herrera knocked out Harry Britt in the third, Kid Wilson knocked out Kid Sullivan in the fifth.

NEW YORK—Ritchie Mitchell and Joe Rivers fought a 10-round draw.

NEW YORK—Frankie Brown won from Johnny Palmer in eight rounds.

KANSAS CITY—Vic Hanson shaded Dick Adair in 10 rounds.

COLEBURN—Jimmy Duffy defeated Jack Perry in 12 rounds.

Scraps and Scrappers. A fight for love, it is said, will be decided when Jack Sandow and Eddie Sullivan meet in the opener at the Olympia next Monday night.

Several boxers who have been showing well in the Middle West appear in this city in the future. Jack O'Connell, a former champion, is now contesting in St. Louis and Memphis.

Jack Munroe, who once gained fame by knocking down Jim Jeffries when the latter was heavyweight champion of the world, is now contesting in a London hospital after having had his right arm, with which he did the deed, carried away at the elbow by a German shell.

Two matches which will be scheduled at the National Club during February will bring together Ed Lewis and Marty Farrell and Andy Burns and Young McGovern.

JACK MOAKLEY HIGHEST PAID TRACK COACH IN AMERICA

Cornell Giving Him About $50,000 for 10-year Contract, Is the General Belief

JACK MOAKLEY, the Cornell University track coach and football trainer, is the highest paid such official in America. The fact that Cornell has just signed him to a 10-year contract undoubtedly means that this famous wizard in the development of college athletics will receive in the neighborhood of $50,000 for his work during the next decade.

Not only is Moakley unquestionably the highest paid track coach in the country, but he is the first man ever to receive a contract of such length. Moakley's last contract was only for three years, Mike Murphy at the time of his death was finishing out a five-year contract at a salary said to be more than $5000 a year.

While the Cornell authorities have not made public the amount of Moakley's salary it must be at least $5000 a year. Moakley, of course, is worth to Cornell all he will get, for without doubt several other universities would take him at a big salary if they knew him to be available.

Since the death of the late Mike Murphy Moakley has taken his place as the greatest track coach in America. Since 1895, when Cornell won its first intercollegiate championship, Moakley's teams have carried off this honor six times, in addition to winning the cross-country championship 14 times. If the Olympic games are ever revived the chances are that Moakley will succeed Mike Murphy as its coach.

There are two things that make Moakley the great coach he is: First, he is an unusual blend of man and athlete.

JACK MOAKLEY

He was a first-class sprinter, middle-distance runner and hurdler in his younger days. Then when he took up coaching he specialized in all the field events, and even now, when 52 years of age, he may be seen swinging an eight-pound hammer just to teach his men how to throw the 16-pound hammer. Likewise, he can demonstrate most of the other field events.
